

Resources to Support Your MCH Learning

<https://youtu.be/DMvDHW6XG3c>

The Title V Maternal and Child Health Services Block Grant HRSA (2022)

This seven-minute video provides an overview of the history, purpose, and administration of the Title V Block Grant.

<https://www.mchnavigator.org/transformation/mchwork/index.php>

MCHwork

The National MCH Workforce Development Center and the MCH Navigator have teamed up to share a new microlearning program, MCHwork. MCHwork actively engages busy professionals in short trainings to further knowledge and skills related to some of the most pressing issues of our time.

<https://www.mchnavigator.org/smart>

MCHsmart

MCHsmart provides MCH professionals, students, and current/future faculty with a comprehensive, self-paced learning system organized around the MCH Leadership Competencies. The curriculum provides engaging and accessible learning and implementation resources to address today's most pressing issues.

<https://www.mchevidence.org>

MCH Evidence

The revised Strengthen the Evidence for MCH Programs utilizes a consortium-based approach to advance MCH National Performance Measure topic areas and develop evidence-based/informed State Action Plans to meet the growing need to translate findings of successful programs and practices into actionable resources and develop evidence-based/informed State Action Plans.

<https://mchwdc.unc.edu>

National MCH Workforce Development Center

Access resources related to managing change, systems thinking, evidence-based decision making, applied implementation, equity, and family and community engagement. Learn more about a national technical assistance center that helps MCH Title V leaders tackle complex challenges through training, collaborative learning, coaching, and consultation.

