

Sphere of Influence

List the things that are in your direct control.

List the things that are beyond your direct control but that you have influence over.

List the things that are outside both your direct control and what you have some influence over.

How might you leverage the things you have some influence over to help solve some of the current problems in new ways?